It is the governing body for all the sports activities of the Qatari national team, as well as for every sports played at the secondary school and University levels. Al-Maliky are the current premier football club in Qatar and regularly compete in the Qatari League. Their home stadium is Khalifa International Stadium. History Al-Maliky Sports Club was founded in 1980, acting as the governing body for a range of sports, primarily football and volleyball at the secondary school and university levels. The name of the club was first registered as Al-Maratiki, and was subsequently given its present name in 1986. The club was first invited to compete in the Qatari domestic league in 1986, becoming the national club for all sports shortly after. Al-Maliky's early years were not particularly successful, and they struggled to qualify for any competition. It was not until 1994 that the club achieved its first major success when it reached the final of the Qatar Cup, which was held by Al-Gharafa. The club, facing eventual champions Al-Sadd, lost the final 2–0. A year later, the club was invited to join the first Gulf Cup of Nations, but lost all three of their matches against Kuwaiti club Al-Jahda. The club finally achieved their first major prize in 1998 when Al-Maliky won the Qatari League. Al-Maliky went on to win the cup that season, making it the first double in the club's history. The club's best years in the league were 1999–2002, when the club won the league a total of five times, and also reached the final of the 2002 Gulf Cup of Nations, losing 2–0 to Kuwait. In 2003, the club 1cb139a0ed
