The Pumpkin Patch is an old-school arcade game with a new spin on things. THE ZERO AIRLINE #1 The Jets are Flying Again Lead one of five unique pilots through the sky and into the world of secret espionage in the third game from Zero-Six. This action packed 3D game is full of explosions, giant bosses, and a brave new world of jet-flying action. With a solid game-play and sound-track based around classic spy movie themes, 'The Jets are Flying Again' provides an incredibly exciting and frenetic arcade game experience. The game play is made extremely simple with a continuous on-screen control panel and all key movement directions are controlled by the controller up, down, left and right. The player is able to toggle the target and bombs in and out of the screen for some REALLY cool action! THE ZERO AIRLINE #2 The Lizard Jungle Explore the world of the lizard-like creatures who inhabit the mysterious and dangerous rainforest in a journey of self-discovery and huge adventure. The environment will initially be completely destructible and you will use the environment as weapons. This game also features a new 'Time of Day' and 'Weather' system which will be VERY USEFUL when it comes to gaining access to passageways and obstacles. The first 'Weather' is called 'Darkness' and the second 'Light', you can unlock all four 'Weathers' to use on your travels. In this game, you are a lizard-like creature that will use both combat and stealth to take down your opponents. Search the environments to find keys and passageways to other levels in order to reach the end of the game. There is also a Global Score system that tells you how well you are doing. The more coins you earn in this game, the better weapons and characters you will unlock in 'The Zero Secret Service'. You can also get the maximum score for this game by completing the secret missions! KEY FEATURES: - Simple, easy to learn, yet difficult to master controls, precision is KEY! - Combat/Stealth System - Four different levels, and an inventory for all the weapons and gadgets you'll need! - Explosive game play and visuals! - Totally Unique Graphics! - Four different 'ZERO AIRLINE' games in one! - 12 Secret Missions! - Global Score System! - High Quality Sound-Track and Music!

What's more, with the inclusion of a variety of fantastic themed cups, it is a great way to enjoy the outdoors and get in a bit of exercise! "Save" "Buy Autumn Park Mini Golf Game"Review: 'Kids,' by Patrick Pierce "Kids," a perfectly timed film by renowned critic Patrick Pierce that recalls the words of a 9-year-old boy named Lee, has a simple message: "Don't give up." Film has been pretty much an instinctive form of communication throughout cinema history, and its truths are as relevant today as they were then. Though economics, technology and education have certainly changed the way movies are made, the essential artistry of the medium shouldn't be tainted, though. The subject matter that guided filmmakers in the silent era no longer exists, but the simple message that audiences of any era are attracted to — that humanity is good, that individuals can change, that happiness is a pre-requisite for contentment — hasn't changed much. Made in 2005, and named after the real Lee, a 9-year-old boy who is calling the shots for his divorced parents, "Kids" follows a wonderful romantic journey for a young couple named Ashley and Rick, and is the first film directed by Pierce, who cowrote the screenplay with Emmy-winning writer Cindy Daniell. The story begins with the memorial service for Lee, whose suicide has devastating consequences for his mother and father, whose relationships with their son deteriorated after he became involved with drugs at the age of 7, even as he claimed he was innocent, and instead of the funeral being a celebration of his life, it became a wake of confusion

----- The text of an e-mail sent by e-mail to The Pumpkin Patch license's registered account as he has no problem with either the idea or the game itself. You may quote or use this exact text if you wish: Dear Pumpkin Patch, I am interested in licensing the "Pumpkin Patch" comic online. I have been looking for a game that I can use to promote my web site (www.thepumpkinpatch.com) without infringing on the Pumpkin Patch copyright. I'd like it if the game continued the the original concept of using fall weather and a pumpkin, Halloween is pretty much my favorite holiday, especially since it occurs in November, and a long, hard winter seems almost like a myth now. I'd be interested in being able to start a character at any time of day. I have no problem with using the Pumpkin Patch characters as characters. I am curious as to how much recognition I should get, and what I should be able to do on the website. Thanks for your time, Norman Hmm, what would I like to do? You say I couldn't be able to start a character at any time of day? Well, I think that's a good idea. That would be nice! But how about allowing a character to be active for only one hour per day? I would like to be able to start a character at any time of day, even during day. How about allowing all characters to be active for 12 hours a day, as long as they are a day or night mode character? So I think I'm going to have to have some people play the game, so that I can make it much better. I think that it could work out okay. (Actually, I think it's gonna be great!) So, What do you all think? Ok, but what are you doing today? I'll tell you what I'm doing at 2 o'clock. I'm gonna go to the pumpkin patch and start my character. I'll see you there. Oh, yeah! We now have music for the Autumn Park theme. As our competitors say, "Music is the future of the industry." Please try it. Have fun. ok, great! I'm having people play right now, already. It'll be really fun. d41b202975

What's new:

Open Daily Autumn Park Mini Golf is open daily from (roughly) early fall until the last snow. Season Passes By virtue of being located in the Park as well as all of the Indoor Playground equipment and Minimals, where are the seasonal pass discounts and savings? Free Mini Golf! Wait...WTF?!??

Yes...Because when you play Autumn Park Mini Golf you are not only playing mini golf... You're playing free mini golf! Whether you're a mini golf veteran or are brand new to all things mini golf you still get to play a whopping 6 holes for free! If you're not familiar with how mini golf is played or what sorts of places it's offered at this might be a selling point or two you've not heard of before, especially with the short season play. You can read up on the basics here. The Stuffies It's no minigolf veteran's secret what the stuffie is about. When you put the stuffies into the ball the rally will rotate and the correct colored things match your ball. Get correct stuffie matches and you will score higher points than if the stuffies aren't pointed in the right direction! As you can see on the picture below I got 1, 2 and 3 a bunch of times... Though to be fair it is a pretty empty hole and I got that 3 as I got stuck between the trees with the 3 pieces of the green not in play. Luckily I ran out of stuffies and picked up a bunch of extra ones to use for it before I found the hole on the next round. Pricing With the short season, the first to play is last to pay! On a round-to-round basis you can play for as little as $1.25 and may even get lucky and play free rounds. While it's not necessarily a high-dollar price in relative terms the minigolf discount can be a true performer in weak pricing seasons but will not likely discount like this for long. When pricing is this great, you just don't know whether you're taking the hook or baiting the line. So plan accordingly. As of now, prices are subject to change but for the most current and accurate pricing we invite you to visit the Minigolf Pass pricing page to review current pricing. You
