(including Windows Live Messenger)
Your 'avatars', emoticons and 'likes' are your most important impressions on your contact list. Nothing could go wrong with your first impression. But finding an attractive and appropriate avatar is not an easy job. In any case, avatars are essential for your individual image. No matter if you use a personal website or an ecommerce website, your avatar has to show well on your website. How do I do this? In fact, I am not an expert in showing an avatar. This is certainly not my forte. I am just a user and well, someone who discovered the 'magic' of avatars. I will show you how you can easily add avatars for all your contacts with no setup and easy configuration. You can also save the results in a directory and share them with your contacts. With this article you will learn how to use an Avatars Manager for MSN & Windows Live Messenger. Getting Started: Before you start, you have to install and run the Avatars Manager for MSN & Windows Live Messenger. After installation

What's New In?

- The MCO Manager allows you to preview and install MCO files and Custom Display Pictures/Emoticons (CE/DP) stealer.
- The Content Downloader will let you choose from hundreds of free msn emoticons, display pictures and backgrounds, which will be imported to messenger fully automatically in a single click. • The Content Stealer allows you to easily grab and install your buddy's custom emoticons and display pictures (also known as a CE/DP Stealer). • The MCO Manager lets you preview and install MCO files which contain flash MSN (or WLM) winks, moods, or weemees. NOTE: Content Manager, Emoticons, and Emoticons Downloader requires signed in user account. You don't need to download the Custom Content Manager. Custom Content Manager feature is already preinstalled on your Windows. To add or change the emoticons and custom content properties, please login with your MSN or Windows Live account, and then choose "Connect to my Microsoft" from the "Personal Menu" tab on the top of the MSN/Windows Live Messenger. If you wish to reset your emoticons (changed during last login), please login with your MSN or Windows Live account, and then choose "Clear List" from the "Personal Menu" tab on the top of the MSN/Windows Live Messenger. Share this message, if you like Custom Content Manager. Thanks in advance for your interest and time.
