Ralph Lauren successfully completed the greatest test a tennis player can experience when he defeated World No. 1 Roger Federer in straight sets during the 2017 Western & Southern Open. Lauren, a 1-under-par 71 victor that day, split the first three sets against the Swiss phenom, but was not able to slow down Federer's relentless pursuit of a 15th major title. On Sunday, Lauren followed the advice he gives to all his players. "My main focus for the last 10 days has been myself," said Lauren, who lost in the fourth round of the PGA Championship at Bellerive three weeks ago. "I played great the week before at the Masters." Several women are set to compete in the Girls Golf USA Championship on the Country Club of Austin's Plantation Course from July 21 through 23. Junior players will also take part in the ISA Junior Golf Shootout, which is scheduled for July 17 and 18 on the course. The cost is $130 for the ISA event and $100 for the Girls Golf USA Championship. Kids golf is free. The main course at Country Club of Austin, which is built in the same style as Pebble Beach, played host to two U.S. Opens and the 2003 Boys Junior Golf Championships. While Country Club of Austin, which offers 14,000 square feet of space, has six cabanas, the facilities on the Plantation course include the four-seat concierge suite. "It has the same amenities," said Tom Allen, the general manager at Country Club of Austin. "It has the pool, the fitness center, the full food options. It's the same feel as a regular
