Epic Fantasy Battles: Nebulae and Asteroids is a collection of turn-based battles and Stellar Map Packs in a world filled with devastating nebulae, mysterious dwarf stars and stellar flares. Discover the secrets of the plane of creation and stop the inexorable march of entropy. This spectacular collection includes five brand new maps, four of them featuring a backdrop of deep space nebulae. To set the mood for these sinister gatherings, we also include a special map with a scorching atmosphere of a dwarf star in the middle of a solar flare. Once you have your Stellar Map Pack, you can play in the space map group or add the normal map group and use them as you wish. Select one of the four previously included battle maps and take your spectacular space battles to a whole new level of danger and interstellar exploration.

What's new:

By Mohammad Hadi Sadeghpour In the midst of the Dark Age, the distant past between the races and realms, an embryo of stars and heavy elements was suddenly formed, as a surprise to all of space. This space-child, consuming the energies of its parents, soon grew up and developed into a sublime star. Soon, this star became into a supernova and altered the surrounding space, destroying planets and erasing smaller stars into the future. This cataclysmic event, destroying the Heavens, created a new Hell, where wizards, magicians and powerful monsters gathered in search of power and sacrifice. After days of intense battle and travel, the attackers finally arrived at the new terrain, where they prepared for the desperate battle... RELEASES: NAME: Fantasy Grounds - Star Battles: Nebulae and Asteroids SCHOOL: DATES: Released: February 28th, 2013 Tags: In Game Window: The following table or calculations is very approximate and is not meant to be used for precise Dungeon Designs. The exact figures listed here are merely used as a guideline to work with. NebulaeThis is a difficult terrain with a few variations in range (from one to three hexs) and overall difficulty (as great as the Solar System). The challenges with this terrain revolve around the buildings, weapons and experience in this zone. Nebulae are also the Arena for the Toybox, therefore, they have the same rules applied to them. In other words, Puzzle Bases may not be created on the disk of the minotaurs for the core elements, such as Iron, Cobalt, Tungsten, and Steel. However, it is recommended to use the alloys with even distribution in the puzzle base. All the materials that can be alloyed are classified in the document, "Core Materials, Alloyed Materials and Alloys". Destroyer:This is a Warrior DFC with devastating damage. Its weapons can damage adjacent terrain types, thus, making a Nebulae Zone substantially a Bomb Zone.
